III. EC Reports

A. President, Zachary Tusinger

i. We have four senators and our advisor attending the Student Government Leadership Conference in St. Louis as we speak.

B. Vice-President, Brandy Enver (given by Zachary Tusinger)

i. Committee Reports

a. Actions, Drew Kifer

-The student survey is coming along and is expected to be out starting Monday, October 30th.

- We have a new club on campus: _ism

b. Functions, Cara Britton

-PR for the Collegiate Readership program is being finished and will be up this weekend.

-Hanging of the Greens: We will have a tree over 20 feet tall decorated and placed between the fountains; Refreshments will be provided; To get more involvement, we will have decorating competitions between the halls and as a community service project, we will sell real ornaments that people can buy and decorate (and put on the tree that night) and the proceeds will be donated to Toys for Tots; Ornaments will be sold in Alpha classes (after we speak to Dr. Schur) and in front of the Findlay Student Center the Monday and Wednesday before Hanging of the Greens (everyone is expected to help out with this!); We will have a Santa there (perhaps Ivy or Dr. Sellars?) and the show choir will be singing Christmas carols; That night, a countdown to winter break will begin (perhaps even use a shot clock?); Weston shares his vision for the event

-T-shirts were ordered Monday and are expected to arrive in about 10 days; pay Cara or Matt as soon as possible ($10.95 for long sleeve and $16.95 for hoodie)—you will not receive your shirt until you have paid.

c. Budgeting, Jack Hyde

- Slating is Thursday, October 26th at 7:00. Budgeting committee members need to dress up. The following week is Allocations and everyone will need to dress nicely for that General Assembly.

C. Secretary, Ashley Na'ayem

i. Please show up to your office hours and sign the attendance sheet in the office. The purpose for office hours is to complete the SGA tasks that need to be taken care of that your committee chairs have given you. SGA does not ask of too much of your times, so please, fulfill your responsibilities and show up for the hour that you signed up for.

ii. Drew Kifer moves to approve the minutes; Sam Moore seconds
