

Student Government Association General Assembly Minutes September 14, 2006 8:00 p.m.

I. Call to Order

II. Roll Call

Absent: Drew Kifer, Sara Landry

III. EC Reports

A. President, Zachary Tusinger

i. Welcome

ii. Reminder: Lunch with Dr. Sellars is Friday at 12pm. Dress up a little and wear your nametag.

iii. Weston and Zach discussed with Missouri State University's Student Government Association a collaboration for a crusade against downtown ordinances, providing an opportunity to learn from a more professional SGA.

iv. Spoke with Dr. Julian regarding the Unwind Grind not re-opening. Bob Love will be resolving the issue; if he does not re-open it, there is a possibility that the Potter's House would be interested in using the space.

v. Discussed the possibility of another winter renovation with Dr. Julian. She advised to wait on the gym, but if interested, to take part in the renovation of the Small-mart area already initiated by staff.

B. Vice-President, Brandy Enver

i. Joke

ii. Attendance Policy: Can miss three times per semester, no more than five times per year. If you will be absent, let the secretary know in advance.

iii. During office hours, your committee heads will be assigning you tasks that need to be fulfilled.

iv. If you need to talk to anyone, about anything, feel free to speak with Brandy.

v. Committee Reports

a. Actions, Nic Zweifel

-Student Survey will be October 17-20; if you have any thoughts or advice, let Actions know

-Collegiate Leadership Program: Next week, Wednesday, September 20th, Bob Duffy will be here and need help during the times Nic has class (10-noon); Cara Britton can help 10-11; 35 cents per copy of U.S. News totals approximately $23,000 for free copies to students and faculty

b. Functions, Cara Britton

-Thank you for showing up at the committee meeting earlier tonight

-Will have t-shirt ideas next General Assembly, are getting prices soon

-Hanging of the Greens: Already have lots of ideas!

-Blue sheets will be available by next week. Use these for any event that you want public relations done for and turn them back in as soon as possible—the sooner, the better the PR will be! (includes: time, date, place, specifics, etc.)

-Announcement: Malorie Cashel would like to be recognized as “Cash Money” and Jacob Coburn would like to be recognized as “Fire Bird”

c. Budgeting, Jack Hyde

-Slating next week; budgets due by Thursday

-Allocations night is Thursday, September 28th; please dress up

C. Secretary, Ashley Na’ayem

i. Thank you for cooperating with office hours; freshman keys may be picked up in the Security office

ii. Weston Kisse moves to approve the minutes; Chuck Knapp seconds

Motion passes with one abstention

D. Treasurer, Julia Moyer

i. Getting budgets in

ii. We are working with Andrea Battaglia because all paperwork must be turned in before will give groups money; if the paperwork is not turned in, we can table it for the next meeting

iii. We are finding out the balances for groups (because money has been sitting in accounts that incoming leaderships are unaware of when they ask for allocation money)

iv. Still waiting on audits from: ACE, Relay for Life, and Ginko Tree

E. Tech Coordinator, Kolby Kallweit

i. Website update: There are more features than we originally thought; pictures will be taken soon; let Kolby know if there is anything specific he can develop to make things better for the committees

ii. Voting: Contacting Gary Swadley and Computer Services to address the problems we have experienced

Jacob Coburn personal privilege

F. Senior Class, Justin Powell

i. Been in contact with Katy Kornwell (alumni contact) for the senior gift; ideas:

-Panther Plaza in Burnham Circle

-Recycling center (in spirit of Sustainability)

-Think about it and get back to Justin so the seniors can vote

ii. Dr. Sellars proposed the idea of bringing a person with more credibility to speak at graduation (traditionally, a faculty member has been the speaker); John Stoessinger is the suggestion since Drury plans on giving him an honorary doctorate; we would have to change some paperwork so this is what the students decide to do

G. Advisor, Matt Battaglia

i. Thank you for attending the retreat

ii. Saturday, September 30th is Discover Drury Day; we need volunteers from 10-11(?), (Julia Moyer and Temi Orgena volunteered); still have shirts and cups we can hand out at that time

iii. Four students plus Matt will be attending the National Student Leadership Conference in St. Louis in the fall

IV. Special Orders
